

FOR CITY TREASURER.

I hereby announce myself to the voters of the City of Tombstone as an independent candidate for City Treasurer at the election which will be held November 2nd.

OLIVER TREVILLIAN.

FOR CITY RECORDER.

I hereby announce myself to the voters of the City of Tombstone as an independent candidate for City Recorder at the election which will be held November 2nd.

GRANT HICK.

Silver Quotations.

The following is the latest price of silver in New York and London:
New York, Oct. 25.
London.....454d
New York.....98 1/2 cts.

Something recent — Dress-goods bargain counter, "Palace." 27 1/2

The choicest groceries in the city can be procured at F. N. Wallcott's, if Mr. C. B. Ayers is in from his ranch and is taking in the sights of Tombstone.

J. M. Aston arrived in this city yesterday from the Reloj Cattle Company's ranch.

Hon. Thos. Cordis left yesterday for Graham county, to have a talk with its voters.

Col. C. C. Bean will address the citizens of the San Pedro river and Benson at the latter place this evening.

Quite a number of the candidates on the county ticket went down to Benson this morning.

A scrapping match took place at the Occidental Hotel last evening, but was soon quieted.

There will be an important meeting of the republican county central committee held at their headquarters this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The anti-Chinese league will hold a rousing meeting at the city hall tomorrow evening, and every member is requested to be present.

Mr. T. J. White, the democratic candidate for supervisor, took his departure this morning for his home on the lower San Pedro.

Custom Collector Willson will remove his office from its present location in a few days to the adobe building directly opposite the old place.

Messrs. Percy and Morrison, of Wilcox, took their departure this afternoon for Benson, from which place they will take their departure for home.

Mrs. D. A. Brown and Mrs. Delia Zeek, two charming young ladies of Benson, who have been spending several days in this city, took their departure for home yesterday, much pleased with their visit to this city.

J. M. Aston, Ranch; C. Baynes, Sonora; N. M. Quinn, San Francisco; G. W. Lang, Los Angeles; G. H. Brooks, Charleston; Chas. McKinney, San Pedro are registered at the Occidental Hotel.

On Saturday evening last some thief visited the stable of J. M. Nash, on the corner of Seventh and Bruce streets, and stole therefrom a bay horse with bald face and white feet; also a saddle, bridle and three spurs. Any person returning the same or giving information as to its whereabouts, will receive a suitable reward by inquiring of H. L. Nash at this office.

In the course of his speech at Prescott the other night Mark Smith advertised Tombstone in the following manner: "I am poor. I have not got any money now. I did have some saved up, but I had to give it all up to help broke men out of town when the bottom fell out of that camp." This will be news to our citizens who had not yet learned that the bottom had fallen out of Tombstone, and will also be news to know that Smith impoverished himself in helping broke men to leave town.

Some days ago Messrs. Tweed, Goodrich, Slaughter and other Democratic candidates, while taking a trip through the Sulphur Spring valley, stopped at Abbott's ranch, and Goodrich, who took a fiddle along with him, rendered several tunes for the benefit of his auditors. When they left the ranch they commenced to whoop and shout off their pistols and stamped a herd of cattle, which have strayed in every direction, and the cow boys, who are now out trying to recover these animals, have anything but pleasant feelings towards them, and their frolic will lose them many votes.

Death of Mrs. Alvord.

Early this morning Mrs. C. E. Alvord, wife of Judge Alvord, departed this life after an illness of pretty near one year.

Mrs. Alvord was about fifty-six years of age, and a native of Kentucky. She leaves a husband, two grown sons and a daughter just budding into womanhood, to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Alvord was one of the pioneer ladies of California, having went there in the days of '49, and endured the hardships of frontier life. During her residence in the Golden State she, like every other pioneer, had her seasons of wealth and prosperity, and her seasons of hard luck and almost want.

When the Tombstone excitement first broke out she removed here with her family and remained here until the day of her death. The writer of this was personally acquainted with the deceased for a number of years and can testify to her sterling qualities as a lady, and her loving care as a wife and mother, and while we regret that she has been called from this world, we can only say that her pain-racked body is now at rest and her soul ascended to Him, who will watch over those whom she has left, and who doeth all things for the best.

The Tombstone, in conjunction with the many friends of the deceased, in this city, extends its heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved husband and children, who are left to mourn the loss of a wife and a mother, and hope that time—although it can never efface her memory—will heal the wounds caused by her death.

The funeral will take place tomorrow at one o'clock from her late residence, on the corner of Second and Fulton streets.

A Card.

EDITOR TOMSTONE:—Since I came into Tombstone my attention has been called to a statement published in the Democrat of the 15th inst., in which the charge is made that in my evidence before the Justice Court in the case of the Territory vs. Jackson, charged with horse-stealing, that I perjured myself, inasmuch as I was a delegate to the Republican Convention and voted in said convention for R. S. Hatch for Sheriff. This I deny, as I was not in the convention, and did not vote for Mr. Hatch, nor did the party who had my proxy vote for Mr. Hatch, and as to Mr. Hatch refusing to telegraph for me, he was not asked to do so, as I telegraphed and paid for the telegrams myself before I found Mr. Hatch. Mr. Slaughter was with me, and told me to offer a reward of $50 in his name. These are the facts and nothing more.

C. A. OVERLOOK.

W. F. France took his departure this morning for his home in Bisbee. The thermometer registered 85 degrees at noon to-day.

Don Sanford took his departure on Sunday for Nogales, on business.

The L. O. O. F. will hold their regular meeting this evening.

J. N. Mason was in from his ranch, on the Fairbank road, to-day.

A large number of Democrats now concede the election R. S. Hatch as the next Sheriff of Cochise county.

Local items seem to be things of the past just at present, as politics seem to absorb everything.

The inspectors of the various election boards are authorized to telegraph at our expense the returns next Tuesday night, after the votes have been counted.

The examination of Barney Riggs for murder did not take place to-day, as expected, owing to the sickness of the defendant.

It is stated that the evidence that will be introduced in the examination of Barney Riggs will be of a sensational nature.

E. G. Norton, W. H. Stillwell and Andy Ritter returned this afternoon from a trip along the river, where they had been interviewing the voters.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Cohen took their departure yesterday for New York City, where they will reside in the future.

Labor or Monopoly, Which?

EDITOR TOMSTONE:—The most important office to be filled at the coming election, that of member of Territorial Council, seems to be lost sight of by the people at large. A Sheriff does not make our laws, neither does a Treasurer or Constable. There is no principle involved in these county elections, excepting to elect men who are honest and trustworthy; not so much so with members of our Legislature. They should be men who are solid on the question which is uppermost in the minds of all lovers of liberty and equality, the rights of labor, and who will defend those rights against the encroachment of that paralyzing monster—monopoly.

The Republicans, in the nomination of W. A. Harwood, threw down the gauntlet and brought out a man who can consistently be termed a "working man" in everything that name implies. The Democracy accepted the challenge and sounded the name of L. W. Blinn, a disciple of monopoly. Has he not been a tool of the Southern Pacific R. R. Co. for the past ten years? Dare he make a move unless this mighty corporation pulls the string? Here is a man who owes to the laboring men of Cochise county and to their energies all of his possessions here to-day, and who, when requested by them—and they had the right to ask it—to lend them a helping hand in their endeavor to rid themselves of that menace to their labor—the Chinese curse—turned a deaf ear to their entreaties, and in polite terms told them to go to Hades. And even to-day he employs Chinese in preference to white labor. White men and white women of his own race walk the streets, not knowing where the next meal is to come from. The position of both Harwood and Blinn on the county division scheme was disgraceful, we admit that. Blinn raised the money and sent it to Harwood with instructions to buy votes in the name of his constituents. Harwood in the name of his constituents spent the money and defeated the county division. The only inference to draw from this is that Harwood will at least carry out the wishes of his constituents, even at the cost of his own reputation, admitting that the end justified the means. Was not Blinn deeper in the mud than Harwood was in the mire? Let the line be drawn. Labor on one side and monopoly on the other. Labor and capital always go hand in hand. Labor and monopoly never. Go to Benson and ask of the railroad employees who they intend voting for. "Blinn" is the answer. Go to Wilcox and ask the same question. "Blinn" is the answer again. Why did L. W. Blinn depart for California the next day or two after he nominated himself for the Council in the Democratic convention? Does Mr. Blinn pay his fare when he rides over the S. P. railroad? Did Mr. Blinn have a conference with the railroad magnates after arriving in San Francisco? "Grows" tell which way the wind blows." Draw the veil.

Democracy has ever advocated the cause of labor. I have always advocated the cause of Democracy. But when Democracy descends from its proud position and asks her followers to place a self-convicted enemy of her cardinal principles in the most important position in her gift. Candidate compels me to state that I am no longer a BLIND DEMOCRAT.

Why We should not be Delected

The man who seeks an honorable and responsible office through the medium of the ballot box should demonstrate to the people that he is not only competent, but also deserving of the position and trust to which he aspires. Ben Goodrich, Esq., has secured the nomination on the Democratic ticket for District Attorney of Cochise county. This is an office of great responsibility and importance. Not only does the proper restraint and punishment of crime in our midst depend largely upon the zeal and efficiency of the District Attorney, but his acts and decisions directly affect every taxpayer in the county. He is not only the protector of all offenders against territorial laws, but he is the legal adviser for the county in all matters, and in this relation becomes largely responsible for the proper collection and expenditure of the public funds.

As a fitting text to this discussion of the qualifications of Mr. Goodrich for the position he is now seeking, we may refer to the records in office of the County Treasurer. We find there the following assessment against Mr. Goodrich for the year 1885:

Lots 7 and 8, block 22.....	$ 200 00
Improvements on same.....	500 00
Law library.....	500 00
Two horses.....	150 00
Buggy and harness.....	75 00
One watch.....	50 00
Household furniture.....	400 00
Total.....	$1,875 00

Upon this property the taxes amounted to $71.25. These taxes Mr. Goodrich refused, and still refuses to pay. They became delinquent and $2.30 collector's fees, and $5.55 penalty were added to the original amount due the county, making a total of $79.10, and for this sum the entire property enumerated in Mr. Goodrich's assessment was sold to the Territory on February 27, 1886, and deeds issued for the same on the 28th of August last.

Here is a man who has been a citizen of Cochise county from its creation. He has accumulated wealth and enjoyed every benefit and protection secured to the worthy citizen, and yet he declines to bear his proportion of the expense necessary to procure such benefits and protection.

Nay more; he has gone further than this by advising certain of his clients not to pay their taxes. Mr. Goodrich is a citizen he is also a Lawyer. He has taken advantage of every privilege accorded him as a citizen, and as a lawyer he proposes to defeat the just claims of the county against him for securing such privileges. He is endeavoring to force upon his fellow citizens the payment of his just proportion of the expense of supporting necessary public institutions, and right on the heels of such disloyalty he asks these citizens and tax payers to elect him, by their votes to a position on the county ticket, which will enable him to collect annually as salary, the sum of $3,000 from the moneys these tax-payers supply.

Again, it is the duty of the District Attorney to prosecute all cases on behalf of the county against delinquent tax-payers. Here is a man who not only declines to pay his own taxes, but claims that the county can not force him to do so. He allows his property, valued at $1,875, to be sold to the Territory for the paltry sum of $79.10. He advises some of his immediate friends not to pay their taxes. It is estimated that the county will lose in delinquent taxes for last year, from $4,000 to $5,000 as a result of the advice given by Mr. Goodrich, thus increasing the burden of every honest taxpayer. In the face of this discreditable condition of affairs Mr. Goodrich now asks these honest tax-payers—or they are the honest voters to elect him to the office of District Attorney.

Let us ask further, what has been the relations of Mr. Goodrich with regard to the criminal element of Cochise county, whom the District Attorney, he would be required to prosecute. Take a brief retrospect of the turbulent days of 1881-82. When the worst gang of thieves and marauders that ever crippled the progress or brightened the prospects of a young community, were living in open defiance of law, Mr. Goodrich was their legal defender, and with the fees collected from them he laid the foundation for his present competency and purchased property upon which he now declines to pay taxes. Is this the character of a man who will force the iron heel of the law with a alacrity upon the neck of the criminal?

Mr. Goodrich has not only availed himself of every privilege guaranteed to a citizen, but his children have been educated in the public schools, the expenses of which he now so generously allows his neighbors to pay.

The position of district attorney requires sleepless vigilance in protecting every interest of the county, particularly the collection of her revenues. Does Mr. Goodrich appear to be the proper man for that position? He certainly does not. The position he has taken on the tax question, if successful, means immediate bankruptcy to the county. If he should be elected to the position he seeks it is not probable that the county would be put to the additional expense of employing other counsel to protect the county's interests, not only against delinquent taxpayers, but against the advice of the district attorney himself.

The man who aspires to a public position should be public spirited; a man inclined to encourage and assist in every public benefit; a man who cheerfully bears mutual burdens with his fellow men; a man whose record is in all respects consistent with the duties of the office he seeks. Mr. Goodrich is not that man.

Our thanks are due Messrs. Tomlinson & Brawley, publishers of the Democrat, for a handsomely printed copy of the great register for the year 1886. It is printed on fine paper in nice clean and clear print, and is handsomely bound, and is, without doubt, one of the best printed registers in the Territory, and does the printers great credit.

for the position he is now seeking, we may refer to the records in office of the County Treasurer. We find there the following assessment against Mr. Goodrich for the year 1885:

Lots 7 and 8, block 22.....	$ 200 00
Improvements on same.....	500 00
Law library.....	500 00
Two horses.....	150 00
Buggy and harness.....	75 00
One watch.....	50 00
Household furniture.....	400 00
Total.....	$1,875 00

Upon this property the taxes amounted to $71.25. These taxes Mr. Goodrich refused, and still refuses to pay. They became delinquent and $2.30 collector's fees, and $5.55 penalty were added to the original amount due the county, making a total of $79.10, and for this sum the entire property enumerated in Mr. Goodrich's assessment was sold to the Territory on February 27, 1886, and deeds issued for the same on the 28th of August last.

Here is a man who has been a citizen of Cochise county from its creation. He has accumulated wealth and enjoyed every benefit and protection secured to the worthy citizen, and yet he declines to bear his proportion of the expense necessary to procure such benefits and protection.

Nay more; he has gone further than this by advising certain of his clients not to pay their taxes. Mr. Goodrich is a citizen he is also a Lawyer. He has taken advantage of every privilege accorded him as a citizen, and as a lawyer he proposes to defeat the just claims of the county against him for securing such privileges. He is endeavoring to force upon his fellow citizens the payment of his just proportion of the expense of supporting necessary public institutions, and right on the heels of such disloyalty he asks these citizens and tax payers to elect him, by their votes to a position on the county ticket, which will enable him to collect annually as salary, the sum of $3,000 from the moneys these tax-payers supply.

Again, it is the duty of the District Attorney to prosecute all cases on behalf of the county against delinquent tax-payers. Here is a man who not only declines to pay his own taxes, but claims that the county can not force him to do so. He allows his property, valued at $1,875, to be sold to the Territory for the paltry sum of $79.10. He advises some of his immediate friends not to pay their taxes. It is estimated that the county will lose in delinquent taxes for last year, from $4,000 to $5,000 as a result of the advice given by Mr. Goodrich, thus increasing the burden of every honest taxpayer. In the face of this discreditable condition of affairs Mr. Goodrich now asks these honest tax-payers—or they are the honest voters to elect him to the office of District Attorney.

Let us ask further, what has been the relations of Mr. Goodrich with regard to the criminal element of Cochise county, whom the District Attorney, he would be required to prosecute. Take a brief retrospect of the turbulent days of 1881-82. When the worst gang of thieves and marauders that ever crippled the progress or brightened the prospects of a young community, were living in open defiance of law, Mr. Goodrich was their legal defender, and with the fees collected from them he laid the foundation for his present competency and purchased property upon which he now declines to pay taxes. Is this the character of a man who will force the iron heel of the law with a alacrity upon the neck of the criminal?

Mr. Goodrich has not only availed himself of every privilege guaranteed to a citizen, but his children have been educated in the public schools, the expenses of which he now so generously allows his neighbors to pay.

The position of district attorney requires sleepless vigilance in protecting every interest of the county, particularly the collection of her revenues. Does Mr. Goodrich appear to be the proper man for that position? He certainly does not. The position he has taken on the tax question, if successful, means immediate bankruptcy to the county. If he should be elected to the position he seeks it is not probable that the county would be put to the additional expense of employing other counsel to protect the county's interests, not only against delinquent taxpayers, but against the advice of the district attorney himself.

The man who aspires to a public position should be public spirited; a man inclined to encourage and assist in every public benefit; a man who cheerfully bears mutual burdens with his fellow men; a man whose record is in all respects consistent with the duties of the office he seeks. Mr. Goodrich is not that man.

Our thanks are due Messrs. Tomlinson & Brawley, publishers of the Democrat, for a handsomely printed copy of the great register for the year 1886. It is printed on fine paper in nice clean and clear print, and is handsomely bound, and is, without doubt, one of the best printed registers in the Territory, and does the printers great credit.

TELEGRAPHIC

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS.

Michael Davitt to Marry an Oakland Heiress Named Miss Gore.

The Charge of Murder Against Capt. John Ellis Dismissed in a San Francisco Court.

Sir Charles Dilke Refuses Under Any Circumstances to Re-enter Public Life Again.

An Eviction at the Isle of Skye Causes a Riot which was Dispelled by the Military.

The Russian Consul at Odessa Calls for a Russian Man-of-War to Protect them from the Populace.

The Preparations for Unveiling the Bartholdi Statue Completed.

Michael Davitt to be Married. Special to THE DAILY TOMSTONE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—It is rumored that Michael Davitt, the Irish patriot, is about to be married to Miss Gore, an Oakland heiress.

Exonerated.

Special to THE DAILY TOMSTONE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—The charge of murder against Capt. John John I. Ellis was dismissed in the police court this morning, the judge holding that it was a case of justifiable homicide. Ellis was arraigned for the killing of Samuel Collymore, a colored sailor on board of the British bark Buteshire, during a mutiny on Friday evening last.

Will Not Re-enter Public Life. Special to THE DAILY TOMSTONE.]

LONDON, Oct. 26.—In response to renewed and pressing appeal, Sir Chas. Dilke has finally and emphatically declined to re-enter public life until he has disproved the gross and unjust calumnies against him, to which object he says his whole life will be devoted.

More Trouble.

Special to THE DAILY TOMSTONE.]

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The crofters of Kilmorie, Isle of Skye, attacked a force of police who were assisting the sheriff to make an eviction, and the military had to be called in. It was necessary to charge the crofters with bayonets before they were dispersed. Several of them were wounded and six were arrested.

Muslin Troops Called For. Special to THE DAILY TOMSTONE.]

VIENNA, Oct. 26.—The political correspondence has received a telegram from Odessa, which says that the Russian consulate at Varna has asked for the dispatch of a Russian war ship to that place to protect the consulate and Russian residents from the violence of the populace.

Everything Prepared.

Special to THE DAILY TOMSTONE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Preparations for the unveiling of the Statue of Liberty next Thursday are progressing rapidly. The training ships Saratoga, Portsmouth and Jamestown arrived yesterday from Newport and anchored near the flagship Tennessee, off Bedloe Island. The rest of the men of war are expected to-day.

The court house was distressingly dull to-day, and our reporter failed to secure a single item in that quarter.

The great register of Cochise county contains the names of 2361 voters, only one county, Yavapai, having any more. This does not look as though the bottom had fallen out of Tombstone, as Mark Smith is advertising it in the northern portion of the Territory.

A Correction.

I do certify that the name W. A. Hammond on the great register is a clerical error, and that it should have read W. A. Harwood.

A. T. JONES,
County Recorder.

Chas. Etchell, of Tucson, who has been detained in this city for several days by sickness, took his departure yesterday for his home.

Mr. Hugh Fraser has gone to the Swiss Alps to take charge of the development of the Herring mining properties.

Any person having a copy of THE DAILY TOMSTONE of October 16, 1886, will confer a great favor on us by leaving the same at this office.

One week from to-day the election will occur, and the question as to who will be elected to govern the county for the next two years be decided.

Mr. A. Bauer has brought in 800 head of fine, fat sheep, from his Antelope Spring ranch, which will be used in the Tombstone and Bisbee markets.

To RENT.—A house of three rooms, corner of Seventh and Bruce streets. Nice garden, chicken house and stable; fruit-bearing trees, grape vines, etc. Will be rented cheap to a good tenant. Apply on the premises. If

E. G. Norton, the Republican candidate for Assessor, is gaining strength every day, and now there is no doubt whatever of his election. He is just the man the people want, and they will elect him by a large majority.

Collector of Customs Willson will sell at public auction to-morrow the horses recently seized for a violation of the custom laws. The horses will be sold in one lot to the highest bidder for cash.

A. T. Jones and Ed Clark returned last evening from a trip to Wilcox in the interest of the Democratic ticket.

W. D. Ganzhorn left yesterday for different portions of the county to look after his fences, as he had learned that Allen Walker had been playing sad havoc with them.

Several "kicks" were congregated in a back yard on Fifth street on Sunday, practicing the "Hip, hip, hurrah." It is learned that they have been engaged by the Democratic Central Committee to raise some enthusiasm at the Democratic meeting, which takes place at Schioffelin hall next Saturday evening.

As a number of inquiries have reached this office from different portions of this county asking for a copy of THE TOMSTONE containing Mr. Goodrich's tax record, we republish the same in this issue, and will print 1500 copies of the paper, which will be mailed to the voters of this county.

The Democrat gave Mr. W. S. Fleming and W. A. Nash a little more free advertising this morning in a so-called letter from Benson. As the Benson correspondent is a myth, and the advertisement was written up in the Democrat office, we do not consider in worth answering, as we do not desire the publishers of the Democrat to spend three or four dollars more for type setting without they get paid for the same.

T. C. Bain, one of the Republican candidates for Supervisor, has been unable to visit all portions of the county during the campaign, owing to business matters which have detained him at home, but as he is known to be an honorable and upright gentleman, thoroughly qualified for the office, his failure to visit all portions of the county will make no difference, and he will be elected by a large majority.

The finest family flour, at Wallcott's, on Fifth street.

We expect a rush for our dress goods, bargain counter, Palace. If Strayed.

Strayed from Charleston, light-colored horse, about twelve hands high, with white off hind foot; knees show scars of old break. Last seen going down San Pedro. Reward by returning to Tombstone M. & M. Co. 10 26

Notice to Creditors.

Estate of Ida A. Waite, deceased.—Notice is hereby given by the undersigned administrator of the estate of Ida A. Waite, deceased, to the creditors of, and all persons having claims against said deceased, to exhibit and verify the same within ninety days after the first publication of this notice, at her office, Fremont street, between Fourth and Fifth, Tombstone, Arizona.

SUSIE I. DIAMOND.

Administratrix of Ida A. Waite deceased. Tombstone October 25, 1886.